

STUDENTS

Student Conduct

The School Board expects student conduct to be such as to contribute to a productive learning climate. Individual rights are to be honored and protected; however, the rights of one individual shall not take precedence over those of another individual or of the group itself, and all students shall have equal rights and equal responsibilities in their demeanor in the classroom or on any school property, or any school sponsored event.

The Board endorses the following principles of student conduct:

1. Students shall comply with school rules/regulations and applicable civil law and shall respect those given the authority to administer them;
2. Students shall respect the rights, privileges and property of others;
3. Students shall display good citizenship behavior and maintain standards of courtesy, decency and honesty; and
4. Students shall be expected to participate in and complete schoolwork to the best of their ability.
